27 September 2002

Twenty-first Meetings of the Commission and Scientific Committee

Members should bear in mind that enhanced security due to the current global unrest has given rise to a potential increase in the time taken to issue visas. As a result, participants should avoid any unnecessary delays in applying for entry into Australia for this year's meetings.

To assist with preparations for the annual meetings, Members are strongly urged to notify the Secretariat as soon as possible the names of their nominated participants.

 Dr D.G.M. Miller
Executive Secretary
